Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

Taken from "Pastoral Patterns" by GIA Publications, Inc.

On this Labor Day weekend we call to mind all those whose work makes our lives better and easier, from members of our family, to people in our community, to people around the world. Even as we labor ourselves in service of one another, we are also called to labor in the vineyard to help build God's kingdom. Today's readings remind us that we are responsible for each other, that we cannot give up on others just because we disagree with them or they have hurt us. This weekend, as we appreciate and thank others for their labor, let us reconcile with those who have offended us, and so work to build up the entire kingdom of God.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Taken from "Pastoral Patterns" by GIA Publications, Inc.

Today, we hear Jesus tell his disciples that whenever two or three gather in his name, he is there in their midst. He is with us now as we gather to hear God's word, receive the Eucharist, and open our minds and hearts to God. May we recognize the Lord's presence in each passage we hear, absorb the lessons in each reading, then put them into practice as best we can.

We tend to think of the person who sins as the one who needs to do something. This much is true, but today's readings emphasize the obligations of the one who does not sin, and even the one who is sinned against. The Lord tells Ezekiel that as a prophet, he is to be a "watchman," warning others of their sins. If Ezekiel ignores their sins and does nothing to lead the sinner back to God, he will be held responsible as well. Jesus tells his disciples that if someone sins against them, they must speak to the sinner, giving them a chance to reconcile. We are responsible for each other as well as ourselves when salvation is on the line.

Question of the Week

Taken from "Pastoral Patterns" by GIA Publications, Inc.

When have I been reluctant to correct someone who has done something wrong? Have I considered doing so in an effort to put them on a path to forgiveness?

22720 WESTON AVE
UNDERWOOD, IA 51576

OCTOBER 4, 2026
MASS 11 AM * LUNCH 12 PM * SESSION 12:45 TO 3

Theresa Romens has been in ministry for over 40 years. She was the Director of Faith Formation for 25 years at Holy Rosary Parish in Glenwood before she retired. The Romens' family was a military family and thru their travels Theresa has had a wide variety of opportunities and experiences in her ministry journey. Theresa enjoys weaving stories and scripture to help people reflect on their own journeys as we walk together on this path. Theresa has been married for 48 years to Randy and they have 3 grown children and 6 grandchildren. They make their home in Glenwood.

Theresa looks forward to spending time with our community as we enter into this change of seasons.

FROM THE ALTAR TO THE STREETS

SEPTEMBER — THE POVERTY WE STOP SEEING

“When we become indifferent to the poor, poverty becomes scandalous.”
— POPE FRANCIS, Message for the Fourth World Day of the Poor (2020)

Poverty is not always apparent. It may be the family silently having to choose between groceries and a utility bill, the elderly neighbor living alone, or a child beginning the school day on an empty stomach because there isn't food available at home. The danger is not only that suffering exists, but that we have conditioned ourselves not to see it.

THIS MONTH'S INVITATION:
Notice one need in your community that you normally pass by. Then do something concrete about it.
Let your love be known by what it does, not by who notices.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Friends in Christ,

As we sow seeds of God's Spirit in our Des Moines Diocese, we know that vocational seeds to the priesthood and to the diaconate are two essential 'hybrids' composed of human and divine qualities that must take root and bear fruit so our local churches might flourish. This awareness prompts my outreach to you as we have adapted what was previously known as our Seminarian Appeal; we have extended this appeal to include the wealth of deacon candidates who are likewise in formation to join the ministerial ranks that Christ established to make disciples and draw all people to his heart. God is blessing our Diocese with men who are heeding the call to ordained ministry and is prompting us to provide the spiritual and material resources that will enable them to respond.

Recently, Pope Leo XIV spoke to seminarians by invoking the heart: "The seminary is meant to be a training ground to help a seminarian attend to his own heart. . . we need to learn to love and how to do so as Jesus did." "This involves every aspect of life, for 'nothing of your personal uniqueness should be put aside; rather, everything should be taken up and transformed, like the grain of wheat in the Gospel.'"

Most of us are aware of the scope of a priest's sacramental and pastoral ministry. We may be less familiar with the role and ministry of a deacon. The deacon is to assist the bishop and priests in the ministries of the Word, of the altar, and of charity. He also accompanies persons growing in their faith, including those who wish to join the Church. A deacon "presides over public prayer, administers baptism, assists and blesses marriages, attends to the dying, and conducts funeral rites." And, he helps the poor and marginalized in our communities.

In addition to the 13 young men in seminary formation to become priests, we are blessed to have 18 men who are engaged in the demanding process of academic, pastoral, spiritual and human formation to be ordained deacons in 2028. And for the first time in the history of our Diocese, another 17 men have applied and are accepted to compose a second cohort of diaconate formation. The generous heart of Jesus is reflected in the generous response of these candidates for ordination.

In order to support the average $59,500 annual cost to form a seminarian, and the $7,600 annual cost to support a deacon candidate, I invite you: Will you respond generously by supporting our newly titled 'Clergy Formation Appeal'? Will you lend your prayers toward their dedication and growth in personal holiness and zeal to serve Christ's Body in the Diocese of Des Moines?

Thank you for opening your mind and heart to consider this request. God's blessings on all whom you hold in your own beautiful heart!

Faithfully in Christ,

Most Rev. William M. Joensen, Ph.D.
Bishop of Des Moines
